

Army Is Overcome By Syracuse, 13-0

Army Bows to Syracuse

STATISTICS

	Army	Syracuse
First Downs	5	11
Rushing Yardage	78	110
Passing Yardage	0	67
Passes Attempted	7	10
Passes Completed	0	6
Passes Intercepted by	0	2
Punts	5	5
Punting Average	34	34
Fumbles	3	3
Fumbles Lost	2	1
Yards Penalized	0	40

WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP)—A brilliant pitchout and forward pass despite a downpour of rain, with Don Althouse scoring on a 22-yard play, started Syracuse on a surprising 13-to-0 victory over Army yesterday.

The aggressive underdogs clinched the victory with a steady touchdown march in the final quarter, climaxed when Jim Ridlow, who passed to Althouse in the third period for the first touchdown, scored on a sweep from the 7.

Army's big football team, smarting under last week's 26-2 defeat by Michigan, was favored to win by three touchdowns. Although Michie Stadium, which seats 27,000, was virtually sold out, only about 12,500 braved the rain to see the game.

All in Army Yard

Syracuse kept the play in Army's back yard all the time, but it looked as if the two might settle for a scoreless tie when, late in the third period, Pat Webel fumbled and Charles Strid, Syracuse guard, recovered on the Cadet 26.

After three line bucks advanced only to the 22, Quarterback Ed Albright defied the rain and called for an intricate sweep to the left. He pitched to Ridlon, who got off a perfect pass to Althouse, which was caught on the 5. The big Syracuse end raced over for the score. Jim Brown converted.

Bus Zaso, Syracuse back, intercepted an Army pass on the Syracuse 42 in the final period to start the touchdown march. Brown repeatedly slashed the Army line and after he had reached the Cadet 7 on short bucks, Ridlon went around his leg end for the tally.

Not until the very end of the game could Army get beyond midfield and even then the Cadets bogged down on the Syracuse 40.

Syracuse lost a golden scoring opportunity in the second period that was set up when Albright intercepted a pass by Don Hollender on the 50 and ran back to the Army 35.

Brown picked up seven on plunges and Albright lobbed a basketball pass to the Althouse, who slithered to the 10.

Syracuse tried to dent the big Army line but the Cadets finally took over on downs on the 5 after Brown was stopped off tackle.

Army	0	0	0	0-0
Syracuse	0	0	7	6-13

Syracuse—Touchdowns: Althouse (22), Pass from Ridlon; Ridlon (7, sweep).
Conversion: Brown.